coolmine

Our promise to you / Fundraising Principles / Governance

Fundraising Principles

Coolmine TC is committed to achieving the standards outlined in the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising. www.coolmine.ie/ifd

The statement provides Irish charities with good practice standards for fundraising. It was developed after extensive consultation with industry experts and stakeholders including charities, nonprofit organisations, legal and financial advisors, donors and academics.

This process is lead by the ICTR (Irish Charities Tax Research Ltd) and supported by the Department of Justice and Equality.

Transparency

The Statement aims to:

- Improve the way charities in Ireland raise their funds.
- Promote accountability and transparency among charities.
- Provide clarity and assurances to donors about the organisation they support.

In depth

For more information please see: (all below with links)

ICTR Fundraising Principles http://www.ictr.ie The Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising http://www.ictr.ie/ ICTR Public Disclosure Statement

www.coolmine.ie/ifd

Coolmine TC' Donor Charter Coolmine TC' Compliance Statement Coolmine TC' Feedback and Complaint Procedure Coolmine TC' Finances

www.coolmine.ie/ifd