

ABOUT COOLMINE TC

At Coolmine Therapeutic Community (TC) we provide a range of quality community, day and residential addiction treatment services for the marginalised in Irish society. Our vision is that everyone should have the opportunity to overcome addiction and to lead a fulfilled and productive life.

Established in 1973 as the first drug and alcohol treatment centre in Ireland, we witnessed the serious impact intergenerational drug and alcohol use has created for family life and on communities. In 2022 we supported over 2,300 individuals to empower men and women and their families overcome addiction.

Coolmine provides a range of quality services nationally in Dublin, the Midwest and Southwest of Ireland, including the only two residential mother and child services in Ireland. We support long term recovery and are committed to empowering people and their families to overcome addiction by providing a range of quality community and residential services. Coolmine offer support in a safe and supportive space where individuals can tackle the underlying issues that brought them into addiction. Furthermore, we are committed to assisting them to improve their quality of life, enhance family and interpersonal relationships, progression of health, housing, educational, training and employment need.

“

To say my life has changed is an understatement. I thought the life I live today was only for other people, but I am living the best life I ever could have dreamed of, and it all started in Coolmine.
