

European Working Group on Drugs Orientated Research (EWODOR)

2023 Conference – Trinity College Dublin, Ireland

MONDAY 23rd October

08.30am Registration and Refreshments (Arts Block, TCD)

9.20am Opening Session (Robert Emmet Theatre)

Pauline McKeown (Chief Executive, Coolmine TC Ireland)

Jim Walsh (Principal, Drugs Policy Unit, Department of Health Ireland)

Jo-Hanna Ivers (2023 EWODOR host & Trinity College Dublin Ireland)

Wouter Vanderplasschen (EWODOR Chair & Ghent University Belgium)

Phaedon Kaloterakis (President of European Federation of Therapeutic Communities Greece)

---

1 st plenary		Robert Emmet Theatre
10.00	Paul Reid Citizens Assembly on Drug Use (IR)	Changing Ireland's drug policy: Conclusions of the Citizens Assembly on Drug Use
10.30	David Best Centre for Addiction Recovery Research (CARR), Leeds Trinity University (UK)	From a social to an ecological model of recovery
11.00	Marie Jauffret-Roustide School for Advanced Studies in Social Science, Paris (FR)	Recovery and harm reduction entanglements in France: Intimate and political experiences of different stakeholders
Chair: Pauline McKeown (Ireland)

11.30 – 11.50 Break (teas, coffee, biscuits)
--

Parallel Session A		Classroom 3051
11.50 -13.00	Improving the accessibility of addiction treatment and support services
Cis Dewaele	Outreach or real-life work: four profiles of working in the real-life context of people
Jurgen Magerman	How can we improve accessibility to professional care?
Boro Goic	Helpline - Entrance door to (un)sustainable recovery paths
Mary Healy Vernon	Trauma-informed group recovery programme pilot
Chair: Phaedon Kaloterakis (Greece)

Parallel Session B		Robert Emmet Theatre
11.50 -13.00	Addressing the needs of women and mothers with substance use problems
Polly Radcliffe	Services and care for women who use drugs in the perinatal period
Julie Schamp	Experiences of Female Substance Users with Trauma-sensitive yoga
Jessica De Maeyer	Photovoicing recovery pathways: Understanding change in women who use(d) drugs
Kate Rachford	How the Parents Under Pressure (PuP)Programme improves internal resources/personal capital for parents experiencing substance misuse issues
Chair: Anita Harris (Ireland)

1pm -2pm : Lunch
-------------------------

2nd plenary		Robert Emmet Theatre
14.00	Jo-Hanna Ivers Associate Professor in Addiction, Trinity College, School of Medicine, Dublin (IR)	Building Systemic Capital to Advance Addiction Recovery in Ireland
14.30	Paul Sobey Centre for Applied Research in Mental Health and Addiction (CARMHA), Simon Fraser University, Vancouver (CA)	Harm reduction and recovery-oriented drug policies: A Tale of Two Canadian Provinces
15.00	Wouter Vanderplasschen Recovery & Addiction cluster, Ghent University (BE)	Promoting addiction recovery through treatment, mutual aid and other supportive environments: lessons learned from the international Recovery Pathways (REC-PATH) project
Chair: Prof. Eamon Keenan (Ireland)

15.30 – 16.00 Break (teas, coffee, biscuits)

Parallel Session A		Robert Emmet Theatre
16.00 -17.30	Building recovery ready communities
Emmett Tuite	An exploration of the role of 'anchor' relationships in building and maintaining recovery
Keith Warren	Peer influence in TCs: Evidence from a social network model
David Patton/Dot Smith	Recovery at the Macro, structural and cultural level
Marie Lawless	"It's about taking it from where you are": Ballymun Local Drugs and Alcohol Task force
Rebekah Brennan/Mark Wright	An Evaluation of "Boxing Clever Cork": an integrated fitness, educational and substance use recovery programme
Thomas Solgård Svendsen	10-year recovery processes in a Norwegian context
Chair: Prof. Jo- Hanna Ivers (Ireland)

Parallel Session B		Classroom 3051
16.00 -17.30	Gaining Insights from Lived Experiences
Joanne O'Dwyer	An exploration of the experience of those in non-abstinent recovery
Clara De Ruyscher	Islands in the stream: qualitative study on the accessibility of mental health care
Declan Murphy	Collegiate recovery programs: supporting educational excellence
Peter Tomlinson	How drugs and medication can help in recovery
Lucy Webb	Trajectories in long-term recovery from substance use: from gratitude to self-determination and agency
Dawn Russell	Recovery - Attitudes and beliefs in the sector
Chair: Jessica De Maeyer (Belgium)

---

TUESDAY 24th October 2023

Tuesday 24th October - 1st plenary		Edmund Burke Theatre
09.00	Edward Day Clinical Reader in Addiction Psychiatry, School of Psychology, University of Birmingham (UK)	Toward better treatment and recovery systems: the case of Lived Experience Recovery Organisations
09.30	Justyna Klingemann , Institute of Psychiatry and Neurology, Warsaw (PL)	How much treatment does a person need to recover? Self-change and the treatment system
10.00	Dave Higham , Founder and CEO of the Well Communities, Lancaster (UK)	The core conditions for recovery: How do we create environments for people to recover?

10.30	Sarah Morton Community Drug Programme, School of Social Policy, Social Work and Social Justice, University College Dublin (IR)	'You can't fix this in six months': The intersectionality of women's substance use within the Irish context.
Chair: Prof. Wouter Vanderplasschen (Belgium)

11.00 – 11.20 Break (teas, coffee, biscuits)

Parallel Session A		Robert Emmet Theatre
11.20 -12.50	Effective approaches in Therapeutic Environments
Connie Pike	Reflecting on fieldwork in a specialist family drug and alcohol service
Chris Swerts	Youth-focused recovery-oriented services: The case of Discovery Colleges in Flanders
Paulo Dias	Relapse rates after treatment in therapeutic communities: A systematic review
Anita Harris	Coolmine Therapeutic Community – Celebrating 50 years of promoting recovery
Irene Nunez	Is Recovery and Addiction Science Reaching Society?
Chair: Oriol Esculies (Spain)

Parallel Session B		Classroom 3051
11.20 -12.50	Supporting the needs of individuals who use drugs and their families
Mégane Chantry	Self-reported met and unmet care needs
Carolyn Ingram	Priority health care needs among people experiencing homelessness and addiction
Maurizio Coletti	The role of families in residential and Community Treatment of drug use and abuse: victims, causes or resources?
Cathy Kelleher	Supporting us, helping others: Affected family members seeking treatment in their own right
Carolyn Ingram	"I've a lot on my plate at the minute"
Chair: David McPhillips (Ireland)

Closing session		Robert Emmet Theatre
12.50 -13.20	Conclusions of the EWODOR conference Professor Jo-Hanna Ivers (2023 EWODOR conference host/Trinity College Dublin) Professor Wouter Vanderplasschen (EWODOR Chair/ Ghent University Belgium)	